I think the call of the wild fits more with the aesthetic of saprae with the deer and other wildlife in our yards

These wild creatures are living among us in Anzac & GLE and that residents embraced/liked their presence & beauty.

Hard no. Can the money allocated be used for current infrastructure and roads. I popped my tire coming up confed, but let's chat about ugly benches. Lol. Sorry not sorry

I thought the idea of using a ski lift chair as the bench was novel and appropriate given the location of the Vista Ridge ski hill.

I don't like option 1 because it's too modern for a rural setting. Also a circle is more common in a Chinese moon garden. It doesn't say where the bench will be placed in the community so it's hard to vote on option 2 or 3. I think this information is missing and should be included in the top paragraph right after - came to my imagination for the (something) location. If near Vista Ridge - then option 3 would make sense. If near the mail boxes or elsewhere then option 2 .

Call of the wild, would be my choice, if it were to capture some of the community lifestyle
